

The Fisherman's Advocate, April 10, 1946:

By Sunday's train there arrived from overseas the last of our Elliston boys in the person of Seaman John Gough, together with his young bride. Seaman Gough is the only one of our boys to return a married man. John left in 1940 as a member of the Forestry Unit and following a service of some months in Scotland enlisted in the Royal Navy where he rendered faithful service throughout the war.....

Flying Officer W.J. Goodland will be passenger outward during this week to Halifax for purpose of having discharge from active service made effective...
